RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR RENTAL OF EQUIPMENT

- 1) Rental for activities is allowed only when relevant proficiency certificates issued by PAssion WaVe or other relevant organisations recognised by the National Sports Associations are produced as documentary proof where applicable. E.g. Users who intend to use closed deck kayaks must produce the relevant certifications i.e. 1 Star Kayak Award.
- 2) All users must put on a Personal Flootation Device and be properly attired when engaging in the water sport activities.
- 3) Sharing of rented equipment is not allowed.
- 4) Check all equipment before use, i.e. no leaks, damages etc. Defects must be reported to the staff immediately.
- 5) Users would be held responsible for any damages to the equipment during rental.
- 6) In case of poor visibility or bad weather, such as a thunderstorm, please head to the nearest shore/shelter. In the event that lightning activity is detected in the vicinity, the warning siren will be activated. For your own safety, please return to the outlet immediately.
- 7) In the event of capsize, please check for your buddy (if any) and recover craft. If you are unable to recover the craft, stay with the craft, seek assistance by attracting attention e.g. waving your hands or paddles, blowing the whistle.
- 8) Do all activities within the demarcated areas. The demarcated areas are displayed on the outlet notice board.
- 9) All users must strictly adhere to all safety regulations by the relevant authorities and PAssion WaVe.
- 10) Please ensure you are able to contact the office before you embark on any expeditions in the event assistance is required. E.g. bringing along a means of communication and have the number to the PAssion WaVe office.
- 11) Keep the office informed of your intended expedition route if applicable.
- 12) All rented equipment must be returned and thoroughly rinsed with water before storing.
